AZ ROC: Phoenix PD Arrests Most Wanted Unlicensed Entity

PHOENIX, Ariz., (Aug. 5, 2016) – On Wed., Aug. 3, 2016, Steven Salyers, 41 of Mesa and one of the Arizona Registrar of Contractors Most Wanted Unlicensed Entities, was arrested by Phoenix Police Department at his residence.

The Phoenix Police Department's Major Offenders Bureau arrested Salyers on an outstanding warrant related a case investigated by the Arizona Registrar of Contractors (AZ ROC).

AZ ROC investigated six cases against Salyers between 2014 and 2015 and found he illegally contracted for $200,720 and was paid $147,000 by five homeowners and one commercial property owner in Phoenix, Glendale, Mesa and Gilbert.

Salyers was paid to remodel homes and kitchens, repair roofs and plumbing and install an air conditioning unit. Instead, the consumers received poor work or had their projects completely abandoned.

The six cases were submitted to the Maricopa County Attorney's Office for prosecution. Four appear to have been referred to various justice courts around the valley but two of the cases led to an indictment and a direct complaint for Fraudulent Schemes, Theft and contracting violations resulting in warrants for his arrest.

Currently, Salyers remains at the Maricopa County Sheriff's 4th Ave. Jail. He was arraigned on Fri., Aug. 5, 2016 (today), at 8:30 a.m.
